Any students currently enrolled in high school, including spring eighth grade and high school graduates, are eligible to attend this program.

When should I arrive?

You should arrive during the afternoon on Wednesday, June 19, and check-in at the Hilton Santa Barbara Beachfront Resort (633 E Cabrillo Blvd, Santa Barbara, CA 93103). Conference registration begins at 3:00 p.m. and ends at 5:00 p.m. Students will receive their room keys and assignments at check-in, although rooms are not guaranteed until 4:00 p.m.

We recommend flights depart on Saturday night after 5:30 p.m. Shuttles to the airport will operate starting at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, and flights requiring a departure prior to 4:00 p.m. are not allowed. FULL TIME attendance is required.

If the only returning flight would leave your student in an airport overnight for a layover, we are able to provide hotel accommodations on Saturday night at a subsidized rate of $75 per student and shuttle students to the airport on Sunday. There are a limited number of stay over rooms available. To reserve a room, call Madison Habersetzer at 805-957-1980 by May 17. Do not book a flight on Sunday before confirming room availability.

Your generous tax-deductible gift will allow Young America's Foundation to host a student at this program who could not otherwise attend. You can designate a specific student you know to attend, or sponsor a student who is receiving free tuition as a result of financial need. If you continue to receive correspondence about this conference after cancelling, please forward your original cancellation email to madisonh@yaf.org.

To which airport do I fly?

You should fly to Santa Barbara Airport (SBA), if possible, or you can arrive at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) and take a 2-hour bus ride to Santa Barbara through the Santa Barbara Airbus (Please visit www.sbairbus.com for more information). Another option is to fly to Burbank Airport (BUR) and take the Amtrak train to Santa Barbara, but this option will add several hours to your trip. Please note that granted travel assistance does not cover both flight and train costs if you fly into LAX or BUR.

Due to limited staffing, Young America's Foundation staff cannot chaperone unaccompanied minors traveling by airplane.

How will I get to and from the airport and the conference?

Students arriving at Santa Barbara Airport (SBA) will be picked up by a Young America's Foundation staff member (with a sign) at the baggage claim area and will be taken in a shuttle to the conference venue. The specific times of these shuttles will be determined once students submit their travel information a couple weeks prior to the conference. Shuttles will run on Wednesday afternoon, Saturday evening, and early Sunday morning. Only students arriving at Santa Barbara Airport will be transported by Young America's Foundation, and we will not be able to accommodate you if you arrive or depart outside the conference schedule times.

Shuttles are only guaranteed for students registered to attend the program. Due to limited staffing and vehicles, parents and chaperones should arrange their own transportation to and from the airport, if applicable.

Can I take the Greyhound or Santa Barbara Airbus?

Yes, Greyhound has buses to downtown Santa Barbara, but they are not within walking distance of the Reagan Ranch Center or the hotel. You can take a taxi or Uber to the Hilton Santa Barbara Beachfront Resort (633 E Cabrillo Blvd, Santa Barbara, CA 93103) from the bus stop. Please visit www.greyhound.com for more information.

If you are arriving via the Santa Barbara Airbus, YAF can offer a pick up from the stop at La Cumbre Plaza. Please visit www.sbairbus.com for more information.

Can I take the train?

Yes, Amtrak runs trains through Santa Barbara on its Pacific Surfliner route, which spans from San Diego to San Luis Obispo. Please visit <https://www.amtrak.com/pacific-surfliner-train> for more information on this option. YAF will provide a shuttle to the hotel for students arriving to Santa Barbara by train.

Due to limited staffing, Young America's Foundation staff cannot sign for and chaperone unaccompanied minors traveling by train.

Will there be supervision during the weekend?

Yes, students will be supervised by YAF staff members who will chaperone and stay in the same hotel for the duration of the event. Students are expected to behave appropriately or will be sent home at their parents' expense. Parents and students must sign a waiver form and responsibility pledge that will be sent via DocuSign prior to the event. Even if a student is 18, they are still expected to abide by all rules and curfew.

Will students have free time during the conference?

Because the event is only four days long, there is minimal free time. Students will have approximately a 2-hour break before dinner on Thursday and Friday, but they must stay on hotel property, unless chaperoned by YAF staff. If you wish to tour Santa Barbara, please make your own plans to arrive on Tuesday night or stay through Saturday night and Sunday. Young America's Foundation only covers your hotel room on Wednesday through Friday nights, and you will check out on Saturday morning before the sessions. Luggage storage will be available during the day on Saturday.

Are parents and family members invited to attend the program?

Parents are invited to the opening student dinner banquet on Wednesday evening and to the Roundtable Luncheon held on Friday afternoon. Space is limited for both events, and further details and information about how to RSVP will be emailed to students and parents about two weeks preceding the conference.

What are the student activities during the conference?

Wednesday night will feature the opening banquet, which parents are invited to attend. Thursday features a trip to and tour of the Reagan Ranch for students, speakers and question-and-answer sessions, and a dinner banquet in the evening. Friday will feature more speakers and question-and-answer sessions separated by a luncheon and an evening dinner banquet. Saturday features more speakers and question-and-answer sessions in the morning and afternoon. Students will receive a detailed agenda via email prior to the conference.

What are the living arrangements?

Students will have one or two roommates of the same sex for Wednesday night through Friday night at the conference hotel. The registration form contains a blank in which you can request a roommate, and we will do our best to accommodate your requests. Students will receive their roommate assignment at hotel check in.

Students are not allowed in rooms of other students of the opposite sex, even if related.

What is the dress code for this conference?
