What is included with my tuition fee?

Tuition for this program is free for Young Americans for Freedom chapter members and includes meals from Friday night through Saturday lunch, 1 night in a hotel (only two students per room), tuition, materials, and other related costs. Leave extra room in your suitcase, as we often give out SWAG!

Yes—while travel assistance is never guaranteed, Young America's Foundation will gladly consider all completed requests. Please use this link to submit your request for travel assistance.

Travel assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have any questions regarding your submission, please email travel@yaf.org.

We will not consider your request until we receive a completed request. Travel assistance essays are due prior to the start of the seminar.

Flights must allow for full-time attendance to be eligible for reimbursement.

Please note that travel assistance is not guaranteed and is allocated on a case-by-case basis. Incomplete essays will not be considered. Travel assistance essays are due before the start of the conference, but are issued on a first come, first served basis. Travel assistance does not cover ground transportation, baggage fees, seat assignments, etc.

Are tuition scholarships available for students?

Yes—tuition assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with demonstrable financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to Jaime Hahn at jhahn@yaf.org with some language regarding your financial need. We cannot consider your request until we receive this essay.

Can high school students attend?

This program is only open to college students.

What is the dress for the program?

Dress for the entire program is business casual.

How much extra money should I bring?

This depends on what you do, because some students go out at night while others prefer not to.

To which airport do I fly?

You should fly into Chicago O'Hare International Airport (ORD). Please note: O'Hare is an extremely busy airport. Security when departing can be particularly hectic, so allow ample time when arriving and departing to get through the airport and city traffic. You can also arrive into Chicago Midway Airport, but YAF will not provide airport transportation to/from that airport.

How will I get to and from the airport and the conference?

We will provide students with transportation to and from ORD, but you must land by 2:00 p.m. CST.

What are the activities during the conference?

The first night will feature a dinner banquet with a top conservative leader. Saturday, you will hear speakers from the morning through the late afternoon and take a tour of the Reagan Boyhood Home.

Will I have free time during the conference?

Depending on what time you arrive, you will have most of Friday to explore the area. If you're interested in staying longer or arriving earlier, we will send information on how to extend your room—at your own cost—later.

Can I stay in the hotel extra nights before or after the conference?

Yes. Feel free to call the hotel to make these arrangements, or you can contact Jaime Hahn for more information. Young America's Foundation is only responsible for your accommodations during Friday night. You may want to arrange for extra time in Orlando before or after the conference on your own.

What are the living arrangements?

Students will have one or more roommates of the same sex. The registration form allows you to request roommates, and we will do our best to accommodate those requests. If you wish to room with two or three roommates, all of you must list one another on your application.

How many students are expected for the conference?

50 activists from across the country—but primarily the Midwest are expected to attend this program.

Is there a registration deadline?

No. Registration will remain open until the program is full, at which time a waitlist will be opened.

Can I sponsor a student to attend this program?

Yes! Your generous tax-deductible gift of $1,500 will allow Young America's Foundation to host a student at this program who could not otherwise attend. You can designate a specific student you know to attend or sponsor a student who is receiving free tuition as a result of financial need. For more information about these and other sponsorship opportunities, please contact Young America's Foundation Development Officer Ilinca Scalco at iscalco@yaf.org or call 800-USA-1776.

Students interested in assistance should apply for travel or tuition assistance. Please see the instructions in the questions above.

What if I have other questions?

You will receive information via email a day or so before the conference about what is on the agenda, and how to arrive at the conference site. For questions that are not covered here, please email Conference Co-Director, Jaime Hahn at jhahn@yaf.org.

I understand that violation of the Responsibility Pledge may result in my removal or the removal of my child from the event, forfeiture of registration fees, and applicable reimbursement due to YAF.
- C. Cancellation. Except in case of emergency, if accepted to attend YAF's event, I must notify YAF by March 1, 2024 of my or my child's inability to attend or I may be charged $1500 since it is too late to give my reserved space to another participant. For my own benefit or on behalf of my child or ward, our heirs, successors, and assigns, I knowingly and freely assume all such risks, both known and unknown, relating to participation in this event or program and I hereby forever release, waive, relinquish, and discharge YAF, its officers, employees, and assigns from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, rights, damages, expenses, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, and other losses of any kind, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, and I further promise not to sue YAF for any personal injury, disability, property damage or theft, or death which may result from participation in this program. These terms and conditions shall be construed under Tennessee law and should be interpreted by any court of competent jurisdiction to provide a release and waiver to the maximum extent permissible.
