Young America's Foundation (YAF) is the principal outreach organization of the Conservative Movement, committed to ensuring that increasing numbers of young Americans understand and are inspired by the ideas of individual freedom, a strong national defense, free enterprise, and traditional values.

We inspire thousands of young people with conservative ideas through breakthrough conferences and seminars, campus lectures and activism initiatives, internships, and educational programs across the country—including the Reagan Ranch project, the National Journalism Center, the Center for Entrepreneurship & Free Enterprise, and Young Americans for Freedom.

YAF preserves the Reagan Ranch in Santa Barbara, California, and the Reagan Boyhood Home in Dixon, Illinois, as premier Presidential properties and sites to inspire America's future leaders and teach the lessons of Ronald Reagan's Presidency.

The National Journalism Center trains students in the skills of accurate journalism and reporting through prestigious media internships and classroom training featuring leading journalists and experts.

Young America's Foundation's chapter affiliate, Young Americans for Freedom, provides young conservatives with unmatched resources, training, and activism initiatives to advance freedom at their schools nationwide.

Young America's Foundation's Center for Entrepreneurship & Free Enterprise educates and inspires the next generation of America's leaders to champion free enterprise principles. The Center popularizes the ideas of free markets and limited government necessary to deliver economic growth and prosperity for more Americans.
